Brother,

First, thank you for taking the time to pick up the Blue Book and read the details of it. As you read the book, you will gain further knowledge of the Order of the Arrow, the story of Kuskitannee Lodge, and various other rich information. From Unalachtigo and Packanke Lodges merging to form Kuskitannee Lodge 168 to our five time Drum and Dance Team National Winners to various award recipients. This book is worth your time to read, reread, and take in all of the information.

As we all know, this has been a challenging year for everyone. From wearing a mask everywhere we go, to not being able to hold troop meetings or Lodge events, or having to do schoolwork online -- I can sympathize with all of these challenges. One thing is for sure, we will get through this pandemic bigger and better than before, and we will continue to give Service to the Order, our Lodge, and our Council. As we move forward, I ask that you continue to give Scouting everything you have to offer, and extract all that you can from the program. Keep on Scouting!

Furthermore, I want everyone to realize that when reading this Blue Book, Kuskitannee is more than a Lodge, but a group of individuals have worked so hard to tirelessly keep the traditions of the Order of the Arrow alive. To the youth that read this, you are the future of our Lodge and your name could one day appear in this book. This can be achieved by one common goal: to continuously serve in cheerful service! I have faith that you will take on these leadership positions in the lodge and you all have potential to do it. With this, I want to leave you with a quote by Dr. E. Urner Goodman, "He who serves his fellows is, of all his fellows, greatest."

Yours in Brotherhood,

Andrew G. Pallus

2020-2021 Kuskitannee Lodge Chief

Purpose of the Manual

_____ This book is not intended to replace the Order of the Arrow Handbook published by the National Order of the Arrow Committee. It is designed to supplement that publication.

The national handbook is excellent, and should be read and consulted regularly. The Kuskitannee 168 Blue Book is written to apply specifically to Lodge 168. This book was created to fulfill these objectives throughout its pages.

1. Create a better understanding of the purpose and objectives of the Order of the Arrow
2. Relate the purpose and objectives of the Order of the Arrow and compare them to Kuskitannee Lodge
3. Provide a point of reference specifically for the membership of the Lodge 168
4. Provide the membership with a knowledge of the history of Kuskitannee Lodge and its traditions
5. To provide a copy of Kuskitannee's Lodge By-Laws for every member
6. To clearly state the responsibilities and duties of the following:
 - a. The Lodge Officers
 - b. The Lodge Advisers
 - c. The Lodge's Operation Committees and Teams

Purpose of the Order

As Scouting's National Honor Society, our purpose is to:

- Recognize those who best exemplify the Scout Oath and Law in their everyday lives and through that recognition cause others to conduct themselves in a way that warrants similar recognition.
- Promote camping, responsible outdoor adventure, and environmental stewardship as essential components of every Scout's experience, in the unit, year-round, and in summer camp.
- Develop leaders with the willingness, character, spirit, and ability to advance the activities of their units, our Brotherhood, Scouting, and ultimately our nation.
- Crystallize the Scout habit of helpfulness into a life purpose of leadership in cheerful service to others.

Mission Statement

The mission of the Order of the Arrow is to fulfill its purpose as an integral part of the Boy Scouts of America through positive youth leadership under the guidance of selected capable adults.

Obligation

I do hereby promise, on my honor as a Scout, that I will always and faithfully observe and preserve the traditions of the Order of the Arrow, Wimachtendienk, Wingolauchsik, Witahemui. I will always regard the ties of brotherhood in the Order of the Arrow as lasting, and will seek to preserve a cheerful spirit, even in the midst of irksome tasks and weighty responsibilities, and will endeavor, so far as in my power lies, to be unselfish in service and devotion to the welfare of others.

Although our many service projects are valuable to Scouting, the main benefit is less obvious. The Order's primary concern is the individuals, and the Order's function is to spread the spirit of brotherhood and cheerful service. You do the work of the Order in your home, your troop or team, and your school, as you keep the fire of the Scout Oath alive in the words and deeds. More than anything else, your own example of cheerful service to others accomplishes the Order's aim.

The Obligation of the order is one way we remind ourselves of our special duties. Memorize it as you did the Scout Oath and Law. Remember the three principles of the Order, and you will easily learn it.

Song of the Order

Firm bound in Brotherhood gather the Clan that cheerful service brings to fellow man.
Circle our council fire weld tightly every link,
that binds us in Brotherhood, Wimachtendienk!

Lodge Song

We are strong, we are brave

Kuskitantee Lodge Events¹

Lodge Banquet

This event is hosted in January but the venue changes each year. The annual Lodge Banquet is open to all members and their friends/family. This event is a great time to come together to recognize our membership and new award recipients.

Winter Fellowship

Winter Fellowship is an event hosted at Camp Agawam or Camp Bucoco, usually in February. This event is primarily a fun “indoor” weekend. Each morning there is a made-to-order breakfast and during the day there are an abundance of fun activities and games centered around a particular theme. During this weekend, service is available for those Arrowmen who are interested. This event is also a fantastic time to take your Brotherhood Test! Vigil nominations will also occur during this event. Full of fun and fellowship!

Spring Ordeal

This event is in May at Camp Bucoco or Camp Agawam. This is the first chance for Ordeal Candidates to come out and become members; Brotherhood testing is also available. There are plenty of service opportunities for all members and theme centered activities are planned for the evenings! Vigil call outs also take place over the duration of the weekend.

Big Three Weekend

A weekend at Camp Bucoco or Camp Agawam in August where we induct Ordeal, Brotherhood, and Vigil Candidates all at the same time, “the Big 3”! Not only do we have service opportunities but Arrowmen who would like to become more involved in the Lodge can run for Executive Committee positions this weekend. It is another weekend centered around a theme that is full of fun and fellowship!

Lodge Leadership Development (LLD)

This is an event hosted at Camp Bucoco or Camp Agawam, usually in September. During the event, Lodge wide training cells take place to prepare the newly elected Executive Committee (EC) Members for their upcoming term. All members are welcome, but required for all EC members. Descriptions of positions are in Kuskitantee Lodge Manual of Administration.

Brookie Brotherhood

This weekend is for brothers of all honors. Usually November at Camp Agawam or Camp Bucoco, this weekend is an excellent time for Ordeal Members to seal their membership in the Order of the Arrow. This weekend has service opportunities and activities based on a theme. During this weekend, Silver Chief and Founder’s Award nominations and voting take place. It is packed full of fun and fellowship for everyone.

Service Days

This is an event that takes place at both Camp Bucoco and Camp Agawam. This event is held all year around. This is a great way to get your service for Awards and a great way to give back to camp. Everyone is welcome at this event, even if you are not in the lodge.

National Order of the Arrow Conference (NOAC)

At each national conference, Arrowmen come together from around the world to share ideas, learn from one another, and most importantly experience an outstanding conference that is unlike any other event in Scouting. NOAC seeks for the best that the Order has to offer and it is only open to members of the OA! NOACs are held every two years, with exceptions made to align the event with significant anniversaries.

History of Kuskitannee Lodge #168

When Pioneer Trails Council and Lawrence County Council consolidated in 1973 to form Moraine Trails Council, it appears that there was much dissent to the merger. The two Lodges, Unalachtigo 168 and Packanke 419 continued to operate independently throughout most of 1973 which explains why there are chiefs listed for both Unalachtigo and Packanke. Unalachtigo's final event appears to have been the 1973 Area III-F meeting in September of 1973. Packanke's final event appears to have been the Area III-B meeting in August of 1973. As of this writing, this author has been unable to locate any record of activity of Kuskitannee 168 until the spring of 1973.

The Lodge name selected for the new Lodge was Kuskitannee Lodge #168, W.W.W. The name was derived by using Kusk from the Kuskuskiees, and Kittany, the name of the trail which stretched across Butler County from New Castle to Kittanning and also the name of a village on the Allegheny river. The totem selected was the Brook Trout which inhabited Slippery Rock Creek, which bound the two council camps, Agawam and Bucoco. The Lodge neckerchief and pocket flap naturally bear this totem. A Lodge fighting song was adopted. Special T-shirts and jackets were also soon available and caps given to active working Arrowmen of the Lodge bore the insignia.

Kuskitannee's first chief was Bill Wilson of New Castle. The lay Adviser was Harry Wright also of that city. Professional Adviser was Bruce D. McElroy, program director of the council. As of this writing, this is in dispute as two other names are listed as first Adviser of Kuskitannee: Ole Hunter and Clyde Braun.

The new Lodge went to DuBois, Pa., Camp Mountain Run, to the final Area III-B Conclave Aug. 17-19, 1973. (ed. The 1973 III-B Meeting program booklet states that Packanke Lodge 419, Moraine Trails Council would cease to exist at the end of this event) After that, National realigned and Kuskitannee became part of Northeast Section 5-C.

In 1975, Kuskitannee Lodge hosted the Section 5-C Conclave at Westminster College, New Wilmington, Lawrence County, with the young Lodge's officers getting into the "thick of the action". It was thought the college would give the section meeting a new atmosphere.

In 1983, Lodge #168 hosted the 5-C Conclave at Camp Bucoco as the policy shifted again. More than 300 Arrowmen attended that meeting.

Kuskitannee with its traditions of two fine Lodges behind it continued to offer leadership at the Area level. It grew stronger and in 1977 adopted new by-laws to keep up with national OA changes.

In the early 1980s, Glacier Ridge District senior executive Vincent Dunn, who joined the council in 1979, became the Lodge's staff Adviser. Under his tutelage, Lodge 168 earned four E. Urner Goodman Camping Awards for its excellence. Dunn pushed the Lodge hard and helped to weld it into one of the finest in the nation. He retired and left the council after the June, 1991, conclave which was hosted at Camp Bucoco.

A special patch was designed to mark the tenth year of the Lodge and more activities were scheduled. Now there would be the Fellowship winter weekend, the Spring Ordeal, the Big Three, after camp closed, and the annual Father-Son dinner. Special awards, like a hat, and pins would be given to members who attended the four most important yearly events. In '90, at the recognition dinner three members received their 11th pin for 11 years of full participation.

By 1988, Kuskitannee had hosted 5-C Section Conclave and furnished at least three Section Chiefs. George Andrews, was elected Lodge chief, then became Section Chief, then later was Northeast Region Chief. Tony Sbarra, Jr., in 1983, and Thom Gaiser were also section chiefs. Other Lodge members have been secretary or held other posts.

In 1984, the Lodge erected the beautiful metal lettered sign at the entrance to Camp Bucoco on Route 8 north of Butler.

Bill Graham, first Lodge chief of Unalachtigo, estimated in 1989 that between 4,500 and 5,000 youth and men had become members of the Lodge from 1939 as the Lodge marked its 50th anniversary July 22, 1989, at Bucoco.

When Kuskitannee 168 became official on January 2, 1973, officers to help Bill Wilson, chief, were: Ron Badger, also of New Castle, vice chief; Dave Bock, secretary, and Tony Lucas, treasurer, also of New Castle. W. A. Waggett, council program director, was the professional Adviser, and lay Advisers were Ole Hunter, and William Clark, associate. Harold Ramsey of New Castle, designed the Brook Trout blue patch.

The new Lodge was ready for action at both Bucoco and Agawam. About 30 members attended the final III-F Conclave at California State College of PA, hosted by Kiasutha #57, Allegheny Trails Council. Neal Bronder, Lodge 168, was the last area chief for Area III-F.

In June, 2008, Kuskitannee was moved from section NE-4B to the new section NE-4A

In service, Lodge 168 has contributed to both Camp Bucoco and Camp Agawam. Such projects have included erecting a brand new sign for Camp Bucoco in 1984 and are responsible for many roofing projects. These projects could not have gone underway without the help of many of Kuskitannee's Lodge chiefs.

In 2010, Kuskitannee Lodge received a National Service Grant from OA National for $2500. The Lodge added $5000 to this to install lightning detection and warning systems at both Camp Agawam and Camp Bucoco.

History of Rae's Cabin

Rae's Cabin: Kuskitaneer Lodge has a building dedicated to the exclusive use of the Lodge. It is located across the parking lot from the trading post at Camp Bucoco. It was built to honor the memory of Rae Creasy, one of our youth members who passed away at the age of 14 from Cystic Fibrosis.

Rae W. Creasy was born July 1, 1984. When he was old enough, he became a Cub Scout and then a member of a short lived Boy Scout Troop, Troop 734, in Neshannock Twp. (New Castle, PA). He joined Troop 733 in New Wilmington and was soon elected to membership in the Order of the Arrow and took his Ordeal in August 1996 at just a bit over 12 years of age.

He became a brotherhood member of Lodge 168 in August 1997. He served the Lodge as a member of the Lodge Executive Committee. He was Service Chairman, and Chairman of the Brotherhood and Elangomat Committees, and also served on the Dance Team where he was a traditional dancer and hoop dancer. There is a picture of him, in uniform, on the wall of Rae's Cabin. The Boy Scouts and especially the Order of the Arrow were his favorite activities.

From birth, Rae suffered from a disease called Cystic Fibrosis which affects the digestive system and respiratory system, but Rae never complained about his problems. He never did anything physical fast; always slow and deliberate.

He was reviewed and recommended for the rank of Eagle on September 29, 1998. On the evening of November 4, 1998 his Eagle badge was pinned on his hospital gown while he was on a ventilator in Childrens' Hospital in Pittsburgh. Twelve hours later, at 7:30 AM on November 5, 1998, he went home to be with the Creator. His body simply was not strong enough to fight any longer. He was just 14 years old.

His family wanted to do something in his memory for his favorite group. Rae's Cabin is that something and Kuskitaneer Lodge 168 is that group. He loved the Boy Scouts but he really loved the OA and his fellow Arrowman brothers.

The gift was announced at the Lodge banquet in February 1999. Ground was broken in March 1999 and the building was dedicated in August 1999. That is a truly ambitious timeframe for any building, but even more so when you realize two things;

1. The family donated funds for all the materials. And,
2. The labor was 100 percent volunteer. Not one penny was spent on labor. Rae's family, friends, troop, fellow Arrowmen, neighbors and more than a few people that never even met Rae, showed up to help. Every weekend from March through August there were anywhere from 3 to 70 people at Camp Bucoco working on what was to become Rae's Cabin.

This building is dedicated to the exclusive use of Kuskitaneer Lodge. Lodge executive committee meetings, dance team practice, ceremony team practice and other Lodge specific activities are held there. Only good thoughts, good actions, good things take place there. There is a lot of fun, a lot of laughter and a lot of important work done in Rae's Cabin.

What is an Elangomat?

In the language of the Lenape, Elangomat literally means “friend”. The Elangomat is the Brother in the Lodge that served with you throughout the course of your Ordeal. He or she was already a member of the Lodge and chose to go through the Ordeal a second time so that they could help people like you to join the Order and pass through your Ordeal without flinching. The Elangomat was your friend through your trials and tribulations during your Ordeal, and they will remain with you through your journey ahead to Brotherhood as long as you choose to stay.

To be an Elangomat is a rewarding and challenging experience. As the Elangomat you go through the tests of the Ordeal along with the candidates. Your example is a better teacher of Brotherhood, Cheerfulness and Service than any spoken words. By learning more about the Order and yourself, you also rededicate yourself to the Order. If you are interested in being an Elangomat you must simply approach the Ordeal Master and ask to become one. This is not a contract that says you must be an Elangomat forever, but just that one event. It is an honor to become an Elangomat, not a punishment, and should be treated as such.

Each Elangomat generally leads a patrol size group of candidates, often called a “clan”. When the Lodge uses them, each clan is independent from the others. Since an Elangomat shares the test of silence and cannot easily ask questions, the Lodge trains him in advance. During the Ordeal the Lodge provides him with close support to meet any needs.

Your Elangomat was a friend to you when you joined our Order. Be a friend to another and help them to be welcomed into the Order of the Arrow!

The Challenges of Brotherhood Membership

Brotherhood membership in the Order of the Arrow is not a rank or step up the ladder in the same sense as from First Class to Star, Life, or Eagle Scout.

Brotherhood membership is the completion of the process of becoming a true Arrowman. Brotherhood members have no special privileges that are not open to Ordeal members, except to attend Brotherhood ceremonies. They do, however, have additional responsibilities and obligations.

You must meet five challenges before you can enter the Circle of the Brotherhood. The first of them you should meet now. The next three require steady effort over a period of months. The last challenge you must meet after you are satisfied you have met the first four.

1. Memorize the signs of the Order of the Arrow. Memorize the Obligation of the Order, the song of the Order, the admonition, the sign of Ordeal, and the handclasp. Also, be familiar with the ceremony. This information will be in a letter you receive once you are eligible to receive your Brotherhood Honor.
2. Advance in your understanding of the Ordeal. Gain thorough understanding of the Ordeal.
3. Serve your Unit. Remain registered in Scouting. During a period of six (6) months, strive to fulfill your Obligation by expanding your service to your troop.
4. Plan for service in your Lodge. Retain your registration in
5. the Lodge and keep your dues paid. Beware that acceptance of Brotherhood involves a pledge of service.
6. Review your service. When you earnestly feel that you have met the four challenges above, write a letter to the Brotherhood Chairman. In this letter explain the following:
 - a. What do you think the Ordeal means?
 - b. Describe how you have been fulfilling this Obligation in your troop and daily life, and how you have used this understanding of the Ordeal to aid in this service.
 - c. Describe your future Lodge plans.

4. Give the handclasp of our Order.
5. How must the admonition always be given?
 - a. Whispered in the ear
6. What is the Admonition?

Vigil Honor

Alertness to the needs of others is the mark of the Vigil Honor. It calls for an individual with an unusual awareness of the possibilities within each situation.

The Vigil Honor is a high mark of distinction and recognition reserved for those Arrowmen who, by reason of exceptional service, personal effort, and unselfish interest, have made distinguished contributions beyond the immediate responsibilities of their positions or office to one or more of the following: their Lodge, the Order of the Arrow, Scouting, or their Scout camp. Under no circumstances tenure in Scouting or the Order of the Arrow is considered as reason enough for a Vigil Honor recommendation.

The Vigil Honor is the highest honor that the Order of the Arrow can bestow upon its members for service to Lodge, council, and Scouting. It dates from the year 1915, when founder E. Urner Goodman became the first Vigil Honor member. Since then, thousands of members have received the Vigil Honor.

Vigil Honor members have an honorable tradition to uphold. They must at all-time conduct themselves in accordance with the ideals of Scouting, the Order of the Arrow, and the Vigil Honor. Membership cannot be won by a persons' conscious endeavor. It comes as a recognition of unselfish leadership in service. This fact should be given careful consideration in the selection of candidates for membership. The Vigil Honor has successfully fulfilled a definite and satisfactory service to the Order of the Arrow, to Scouting, and to individual members. Its continued success depends on the care with which future members are selected and on the maintenance by its members of the high ideals of service to others for which the Vigil Honor has always been known.

Any member of the Order of the Arrow registered in Scouting in good standing in a regularly chartered Lodge, is eligible for recommendation to the national Order of the Arrow Committee for evaluation to thee Vigil Honor, provided that, at the time of recommendation, the individual has been a Brotherhood member for a minimum of two years. Because the Order of the Arrow is primarily an organization for youth, it is suggested that, in recommending candidates for the Vigil Honor, preference is given to those who were inducted into the Order as Scouts, rather than those who were inducted into the Ordeal as adult volunteers or professional Scouters.

Members of the Order can be inducted into the Vigil Honor only with the written approval of the National Order of the Arrow Committee.

REMEMBER THAT YOU CANNOT SEEK THE VIGIL, IT SEEKS YOU!!!!
